“ My condolences to you, Dora. You and Cheryl were so loving to each other, something I admired and don't find in a married couple. May God give you the strength to go through your grieving. Also, my condolences to the whole family. It's a blessing to have someone as close to your family member to share even more loving memories than I have been privy to listen to.

“ I am deeply saddened to be posting this tribute to a fine young woman who still had a lot of love and life in her! Thinking back in time I remember the days of Del Rio back in 1976 when I first met her residing at 210 Happy Lane with her wonderful parents Charlie and Barb. They were the epitome of a class act family as they treated all who knew them as their own! I am truly honored to have known you and may God bless you and all of your family in this time of sadness! Rejoice in knowing that Cheryl is in paradise forever!

“ Mere words cannot convey the sorrow I feel at the loss of my friend, I met Cheryl doing what she loves to do ,teaching , I was not an easy student i was hard headed, that was many many years ago and we have remained friends ever since we weren't in constant contact with each other ,but if you knew Cheryl you had a special bond with her no matter how much time you spent or didn't spend with her she was just that kind of a person, I felt the loss the second I heard the news I was in San Angelo and it hit me hard ,she will be for ever remembered and forever missed , my heartfelt sympathies for her loved ones and Friends alike ,my thoughts and prayers will be on the ones left behind, May the Lord grant you comfort and healing from your loss and your grief.

“ Our beautiful sister Cheryl, our hearts are broken, but we know you are no longer in pain, I have asked god why a million times, but I understand he must of had his own reasons, you were truly treasured far more than I think any of us truly realized, the out pouring of all your students are absolutely priceless, we know how much you loved your career, because it was not a job, but your passion! I am at peace knowing you are with our loved ones! I love you Cheryl, you are already missed beyond measure! You are 4-ever in our hearts! I love you Cheryl, it's not goodbye it's until we meet again
